

In Memory and Honor of Departed DCMS Members

In Memory of Dr. Gerald Stenklyft, Jr.

Gerald Hilding Stenklyft, Jr., MD, died December 19, 2009. Born in Anderson, Indiana, he graduated in 1984 from Louisiana State University Medical Center in Shreveport, LA and completed an Obstetrics residency in 1988. He practiced Obstetrics and Gynecology in Jacksonville, FL for 21 years at Baptist Medical Center. He joined North Florida Obstetrical and Gynecological Associates, P.A. in 1999. Dr. Stenklyft was a family man, and he enjoyed sports, fishing, hunting and horseback riding with his wife and children.

In Memory of Dr. William Knauer, Jr.

William Jerome Knauer, Jr., MD died January 6, 2010. A Jacksonville native, he received his B.S. degree from the University of Florida, his M.D. degree from George Washington University and did a residency in Ophthalmology at The Wilmer Eye Institute of John Hopkins University. An Ophthalmologist, Dr. Knauer served on the staffs of Brewster University and St. Luke's, Baptist, Riverside and St. Vincent's hospitals. A DCMS Life Member, he was also a founding member and chairman emeritus of the Eye Research Foundation. Dr. Knauer was a family man, and was also active in civic clubs and organizations.

In Memory of Dr. Richard Laucks

Richard C. Laucks, MD, died January 5, 2010. From Reading, PA, he did his training and residency in Otolaryngology at Temple University and St. Christopher's Hospital for Children. Dr. Laucks moved to Jacksonville in 1995 where he was a physician and surgeon with North Florida Otolaryngology Associates. He enjoyed golfing, deep sea fishing, boating and sailing.

In Memory of Dr. Ernest Miller

Ernest C. Miller, MD, died in January 8, 2010. A DCMS Life Member, Dr. Miller was a Psychiatrist who specialized in Forensic Psychiatry. He received his MD degree from Tulane University's Medical School and did his internship at Charity Hospital in New Orleans, LA.